This certification programme with EDUK8U Grad School Asia is designed to help establish your career within the Payroll Processing function of any business. This payroll education covers a wide spectrum of issues that graduates face at each stage of their careers, from payroll fundamentals to increasingly complex compliance, operational, regulatory, technological and computational issues.

Payroll administration and processing is one of the most regulated functions in an organisation. A payroll specialist's knowledge of labour law and computational compliance issues is crucial to minimising an organisation's exposure to fines and penalties for noncompliance. Understanding, establishing and analysing payroll benchmarks and metrics along with using payroll audits to detect errors and fraud.

We admit graduates and grow them to demonstrate a mastery of payroll operations and compliance, with the payroll certification. This is only the beginning of your learning journey.

We strive to support every step of your online learning experience at EGSA and we look forward to welcoming you into our HR alumni.

See you in class!

Program Learning Outcome

The Certified Payroll Administrator and Manager course covers payroll administration requirements from start to finish with the ability to self apply and complete the necessary computation. Detailed knowledge and experience learning on leading payroll software that has LHDN compliance and is used by major corporations in Malaysia. While businesses use software for payroll processing, however, it is vital for students and potential payroll officers to understand the complexities surrounding various government acts and provisions required for calculating payroll along with minimum provisions in a non-exhaustive list of the ACTS of Malaysia.

This Programme Is For:

- Junior payroll and HR staff
- Admin staff handling HR and payroll
- Executives looking for a university micro-credential certification in payroll
- Final year College or University students seeking Payroll or HR administration career
